

Preliminary Research Map

Use this map to guide your preliminary research and your first dive into secondary sources. Use the bubbles to fill in people, places, events, and other details you'll want to research further

Once you have researched at least three people, places, dates/events, and subtopics that are a part of your larger research topic, it's time to dive into taking a first stab at answering your question. Write a first hypothesis of answer here in its simplest terms: